How to Access our Service

If you are 65 years or over (50 if Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander) contact My Aged Care on 1800 200 422 and request a referral to Tweed Byron and Ballina Community Transport.

If you are under 65 call our friendly office staff on 1300 875 895.

You will be asked some questions to determine whether you are eligible for the service.

Once you are registered, we will send you additional information about our service and the options available.

Car Trips

Call us with your appointment details to book your trip. We need at least 3 working days notice to make the arrangements and you can call us well in advance if you like.

Bus Trips

If you are interested in joining one of our bus services, speak to our bus administrator, who will tell you what is available in your area.

Costs

Tweed Byron and Ballina Community Transport request a contribution towards the cost of your trip. The amount varies depending on the distance you need to travel. These contributions help make our funding go further.

We aim to make our services affordable to all our clients. The contribution amount is negotiable if you are experiencing financial hardship.

Accompanying carers travel free of charge.

Accessibility

We provide transport in a range of vehicles to meet our clients' individual mobility needs.
